

Donations Policy

The Guille-Allès Library does not accept donations of printed materials, DVDs or CDs. With the following exceptions –

- Items of exceptional interest, for example, items of significant local history interest. These may be passed to the Priaulx Library or Island Archives if more appropriate.
- Jigsaw puzzles and board games, provided these are in acceptable condition.

Any donated item becomes the property of the Guille-Allès Library and may be relocated or withdrawn where appropriate in accordance with the Library's Collection Development Policy.

The Chief Librarian or their appointed Deputy has the final decision in accepting donations.
